POWERING YOUNG WOMEN THROUGH SPORTS

Why we do what we do

The Filipino girl can break the cycle of poverty.

Here's why: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=1e8xgF0JtVg>

Why we do what we do

...with the right education, environment, and attitude.

Why we do what we do

Sports can teach her the values she needs to rise from poverty.

Confidence
Setting goals
Sacrifice
Hard work
Leadership
Strategy
Determination
Discipline
Teamwork
Winning & losing

Why we do what we do

Our goal is to empower Filipinas to rise through sports.

Our “WHY”

1. All women should be empowered to believe in and fight for gender equality
2. All children have the right to play and have fun
3. Playing sports improves overall physical fitness
4. Sports are effective tools for experiential learning of valuable life lessons
5. Sports are safe spaces for the girls to meet new friends and be exposed to positive female role models
6. Playing sports is a healthy and productive alternative to negative influences that the girls are exposed to in their communities

What we do?

GGG is the Philippines' first and only organization that conducts all-girls sports camps.

What is it?

- Free, girls-only sports camp
- Targeted to 100 10-12 year old girls with a 1:10 Coach-to-Athlete ratio
- All athlete-participants go through age-appropriate training in Basketball, Football, Rugby, Volleyball

Where is it?

- Nationwide in the Philippines
- All athlete-participants are from low income schools and barangays that have little to no access to sports

When is it?

- 4x a year by GGG Philippines, 2x a year by GGG Mindanao
- Inaugural Camp: May 21-24, 2015
- Duration of 1 camp: 2 full days
